

START CRIMINAL CASES ON MONDAY

State's Attorney Thompson Announces to Judge Ramsay He Expects to Have Thirty.

LOOK FOR 20 IN SECOND REPORT

First Return of September Grand Jury Announced Yesterday. Confirms 10 True Bills.

State's Attorney F. E. Thompson yesterday announced to Judge F. D. Ramsay that he expects to have a total of 30 criminal cases to prosecute when the grand jury has completed its work, which will probably be the last of this week. Ten indictments already have been returned.

The grand jury is working on the three hundred of matters that have accumulated during the summer months, only one session of that body having been held in the May term and June session.

In view of the situation as represented by the state's attorney, Judge Ramsay did not call the calendar for an adjournment of civil cases Thursday as had been anticipated, as the criminal list will be ready for trial when the grand jurors report for service Monday.

With the number of criminal cases pending a large list of them of great importance. Leading in public interest among the matters that have been awaiting attention of the grand jury is the case of John Holmes, charged with murdering Mrs. Emma Glass in West Moline.

SIX-YEAR-OLD IS HEIR TO PEERAGE

The small Earl of Madeley.

The little Earl of Madeley is the six-year-old son and heir of the Marquis of Crewe. Lord Crewe, in addition to his distinguished political energies and obligations, was at one time a lieutenant in the Yorkshire Dragoons. The present Lady Crewe was formerly Lady Margaret Primrose, the daughter of Lord Roseberry.

WILSON HAS LOVELY BUNCH OF CALLERS

Washington.—The real president of the United States arrived in Washington the other day. He admitted it "I come," he announced, as he stepped out the train from Eekala. To take possession of the White house. I will drive out the rest of my life.

"Welcome," said a cordial secret service man. "Permit me to escort you to the White house."

Whereupon the self-styled president was whisked to police headquarters. Eventually, he held forth in rooms at the psychiatric ward of the Washington asylum hospital. In the few months this institution has welcomed a few other presidents, the queen of Canada (who had come to ask Secretary McAdoo for $100,000 for vacation expenses). The most august guests of the people (including Mexico, numerous crack-brained inventors, miscellaneous "clowns" of the president (who just wanted to chat with him, and sundry other members of the White house).

One chap—sneaked and ostensibly innocent—came all the way from California to arrest the president. He ran the secret service gamut at the White house and calmly walked up to the White house before guards nabbed him. Another came from New York with a weird tale of the shooting of 400 German spies on the Brooklyn bridge every day. He wanted President Wilson to have the same system started in Washington.

A woman working in a government bureau had a revolutionary invention that she wanted to show Mrs. Wilson. And on the psychiatric ward records there is a robust group of rabid propagandists, driven wild by propaganda and worry.

There is politics in many of these cases. The latest addition is a devout little western farmer who was haunted by visions calling upon him to end the war—at once. The man sold all his property and made his way all the way to Washington. The moment he stepped off the train he asked to see President Wilson.

"Come right in here," said a detective, motioning to an automobile, "and I will take you to the president's up-town office." The farmer entered and was whisked to the psychiatric ward.

Eight-eyed plain clothes men stem the tide of cranks at the union station. Only the cleverest crank can get near the White house. And it takes a sane man to get inside.

START FIGHT ON GERMAN 'KULTUR'

American Educator on Mission in England Making Plans to Counteract Enemy Teachings.

OFFENSIVE OF ENGLISH TONGUE

American Student to Study in England While Britain's Pupils Come to United States.

London, Sept. 9.—(By Mail.)—Plans for an important educational offensive of the English speaking peoples designed to effect the complete reorganization and consolidation of the English systems so as to increase their efficiency in arresting the heretofore threatened triumphant headway throughout the world of German "kultur" is responsible for the presence here of Dr. Lyman F. Powell, president of Hobart college of Geneva, N. Y., under the auspices of the Association of American College presidents and the United States minister of education, P. P. Claxton.

"If my mission here is successful, as I have every reason to believe it will be," said Dr. Powell to The Associated Press, "our new epoch in reciprocity in education between England and the United States will bear its first fruits next summer when our young men whose scholastic work has been interrupted by the call to arms will, during convalescence from wounds, be making a start in attendance at such English institutions as Oxford and Cambridge.

France to Be Included. "France is to be included in the scheme. If the Association of American College presidents, to whom I shall submit my report at their annual meeting in Chicago in January next, so agree, more and more of our students in future will be going to England and France, while England should be sending her students to our schools."

Dr. Powell has made rapid progress in obtaining the enthusiastic support of leading English educators and officials. At Oxford he found favor in his plans among the heads of the institution.

Among the most enthusiastic workers in the American ambassador, Dr. Walter Higgs Page.

Finance Is Big Problem. One of the big points to be solved is the financing, and one of the dreams of the leading spirits of the association of American presidents is the hope of finding an American (Gull) scholar for the founding of a scholarship in English universities in the interest of the American students.

It is safe to say, according to Dr. Powell, that the ultimatum issued some two years ago under the signature of Dr. Gorman, professor and director enforcing the fundamentals of German kultur, as the panacea for the cure of mankind's ills, was the challenge out of which has developed the plans Dr. Powell brings.

To Advise Conference. Dr. Powell announced he will advise, probably next before submitting his report to the Chicago meeting in January, the appointment of a committee of American educators to engage in a series of conferences with British educators at the earliest possible opportunity.

Many People Can't Eat Wheat Flour Substitutes

Certain substitutes for wheat flour are said to affect many people by causing irritations of the skin, etc.

Children, in many instances, do not thrive on these substitutes.

Those who are careful about the foods they serve will be very particular about the flour they buy.

European Formula Kills Any Corn

A doctor while stopping at an Illinois town was directed to the home of a lady who had the wonderful formula. On being requested to show proof of its merits she showed a series of letters of the 100 towns where it had cured all of the corn sufferers from people all over the globe. Some of the letters were filled with the names of the people who had been cured. The doctor was so impressed that he decided to try it on his own feet. He had the formula and it cured him. He then decided to try it on his patients. He had the formula and it cured them. He then decided to try it on his patients. He had the formula and it cured them.
